

THE THIRTY-SIXTH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON SOLID WASTE TECHNOLOGY AND MANAGEMENT

Annapolis (Washington, D.C. area) U.S.A.

March 14 – 17, 2021

In-person/Virtual

Call for Papers

The 36th International Conference on Solid Waste Technology and Management will be held in Annapolis, Maryland, U.S.A. on March 14-17, 2021.

Because there is uncertainty as to what level of travel will be feasible at that time, we are preparing for all possibilities:

- Full in-person conference in Annapolis
- Full virtual conference including oral and poster presentations, exhibits, education and networking
- In-person with remote access for those who cannot travel

Whatever platform is implemented, our goal is to provide the excellent opportunities to learn and participate that ICSW has provided for 4 decades.

Researchers, educators, government officials, consultants, managers, community leaders, students and others with an interest in solid waste are invited to submit abstracts for oral or poster presentation at the Conference.

Papers related to all aspects of solid waste technology and management are of interest, including:
